

John R. Franklin, 59; employed as truck salesman

John R. Franklin, 59, of 731 E. Judson Ave., died, apparently of a heart attack, early today at his home.

Mr. Franklin was born June 16, 1929, in Youngstown, a son of Robert and Glendolwyn Nichols Franklin. He was a salesman for International Harvester for 25 years, and for the last six years was a salesman for Cerni GMC Truck Sales and Service. He was a member of St. Dominic Church and was a coach for 14 years in the Mill Creek Junior Baseball League. A Korean War veteran, he was a trustee of the Youngstown Rifle and Pistol Association and was a lifetime member of the National Rifle Association.

He leaves his stepfather, Al Ansell of Youngstown; his wife, the former Dorothy Danks, whom he married in October 1960; two daughters, Mrs. Carolyn DiNaiollo of Youngstown and Miss Laura at home; and a son, John R. at home.

Services will be at 10 a.m. Friday at the Fox Funeral Home and at 10:30 in the church. Friends may call from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m. Thursday at the funeral home.
