This lady is said to have given Mr. Welles some information respecting the birth place of her distinguished relative. Whose daughter was she? Thomas J. Lillie, whose father owned the house when it was burnt, and who was himself born in it, never heard that any such person ever lived in it. There are other reasons for doubting the story. David Griffith “died in Portland several years since, and has three daughters residing there.” (S.P./F., in Transcript, Oct 8, 1856)

21. Sarah Ingersoll, a grand niece of Dr. Franklin, married Capt. Lewis Fabian, R.N.; and their son Capt. Charles Montagu Fabian, was born at Boston, U.S., in 1773. (Transcript, Oct 1, 1856)

- O. Benjamin, b. in Boston, Jan 6, 1706, m. Deborah Read,²² of Philadelphia in 1730; he died April 6²³, 1790. A perfect list of the descendants of Dr. Franklin, to the fourth generation, will be found in the Register, Vol. VIII., p. 374.²⁴
 - P. Lidia, b. Aug 3, 1708; m. Robert Scott;²⁵ d. 1758; had one daughter, name forgotten.
 - Q. Jane, born March 27, 1712; m. Edward Mecum; had issue, the names of whom are lost.
- II. Margerye [Franklyne] sister to Thomas m. John Walsh, Feb 5, 1561, at Ecton. No account of their issue.

22. Miss Read had married a Mr. Potter, but learning that he had another wife, she refused to live with him or bear his name. (Sparks, p.67)

23. The original record is noted in the old style, giving Dr. Franklin's death, 6th of April. Present style will make it, of course, 17th. (W.B.)

24. A statue to his memory was last year placed in front of the City Hall, Boston. Hon. Robert C. Winthrop delivered an Oration on the occasion, Sept. 17, 1856. The street in which Dr. Franklin was born has not been satisfactorily ascertained. Different traditions locate his birthplace in Milk, Union and North Bennet Streets. The general opinion, however, is in favor of the first named place; and, on a building lately erected there, the inscription, "Birthplace of Franklin" has been placed. A discussion of this question will be found in the Boston Evening Transcript, Sept. 23 to 27, Oct. 6 and Oct 11, 1856. It is there proved that Josia Franklin, the father of Benjamin, was an occupant, but not an owner of the Milk Street estate in 1691. In 1712, he purchased an estate at the corner of Union and Hanover Street. Nothing has been discovered to show where he resided during the intermediate period of twenty-one years, though it is generally supposed that he continued to reside in Milk Street till he purchased the estate in Union Street. It is possible, however, that he may have lived as a tenant in Union Street, before his purchase of the estate. There are probably records and documents in existence that will settle the matter without a doubt.

25. "Born 8 Aug, 1708; m. Robert Scott, 1731." (Sparks)

Franklins in Marlborough

(Communicated by Cyrus Felton, of Marlborough.)

Probably every item relating to the name of Franklin should be preserved in more than one copy. For this reason we have copied from the Town Records of Marlborough the following births:

Benjamin and Phebe Franklin. Children:

1. Mary, b. July 3d, 1690
2. John, b. Sept. 12th, 1692

April 27th, 1699, allowed Benjamin Franklin, for keeping school 14 weeks, £5 and 12 shillings. (See Worcester Magazine, p. 144, published 1826.)

Phebe Franklin was admitted into Marlborough Church (in 1701 we believe is the date).

pg. 87: “Contributions to the Early History of Perth Amboy and adjoining Country, with Sketches of Men and Events in New Jersey during the Provincial Era”, By William A. Whitehead, Author of “East Jersey under the Proprietary Governments”, Editor of “Papers of Governor Lewis Morris,” etc. With Maps and Engravings, New York: 1856. 8vo., pp.428.

Mr. Whitehead is well and favorably known as an accurate and diligent historical writer. New Jersey is largely indebted to him in her historical department. In the work before us New England readers will find much, very much to interest them. East Jersey received many of its substantial settlers from the New England States; especially from Connecticut, Massachusetts, and New Hampshire. Consequently the genealogist must look to New Jersey to find materials to complete many of the lines in his family history.

Among the illustrations in Mr. Whitehead’s work, are portraits of Gov. William Franklin, of Gov. Burnet, the Rev. Edward Vaughan, several maps, and numerous neat wood engravings.

pg. 147: Letter from Timothy Green, of Boston, to Rev. Nathaniel Clap, of Newport, R.I., (1743).

“Rev. & Hon. Sir: - I received of you some days ago, by the hands of Mr. John Franklin, the sum of Forty shillings, old Tenor, [to] purchase the Xian History, Boston Gazette, &c.; according to your Desire, I went to Mr. Price’s to get the Xian History, & sent that, and here sent the Gazeette’s which I made up thro’ much Difficulty, and a few books I thought you would be glad to receive. - I am now in great hast & can’t enlarge but beg your Prayers for us at the Throne of Grace. - I subscribe myself (after Dugy to you) your very humble servent. pg. 194-196: Thomas Jefferson, July 1857

“Mr. Jefferson returned to Virginia in the summer of 1776, and during his absence he, with Dr. Franklin and Silas Deane, was appointed Commissioner to the Court of France; but, owing to the state of his family, and the peculiar affairs of the Province, he declind the appointment, and soon after resigned his seat in Congress, in which he was succeeded by Benjamin Harrison.”

“In 1784 Mr. Jefferson was an envoy to France, with Franklin and John Adams, in which country he remained til November, 1789.”

“They must be very ignorant of the history of America who know not that Mr. Jefferson shared with George Washington, Franklin, John Adams, Mr. Jay, and a few others, the toils and dangers of the Revolution in all its different stages.”

The following information submitted by Reba M. Gale, PO Box 142, Jamul, CA 91935 (619) 669-6333. The following is research done by Genealogist Elsie Caldwell Fields/The 1892 House/Pomaria, SC 29126 dated 28 January 28, 1992. Here in Newberry I went to the minutes of the County Court of Edgefield (1785-1795), in book form, and copied the references to all the Franklins.

Court Session October 1786:Charles & Wife vs. Fred. Williams

Court Session 10 Oct 1787:Charles & wife vs. Fred. Williams, discontinued;

Charles & wife & others vs. Fred. Williams, discontinued.

Court session 15 Apr 1790:Charles & Edmond vs. Alex. Oden. These minutes do not tell us anything about the suits, so we don't know what's happening. With Thomas, Charles & wife, and Edmond Franklin, all related in some manner, and all very opposed to Frederick Williams.

Edgefield Deeds (1786-1796)

in book form - Abstracts.

Thomas was originally granted land near Cherokee Pond in 2.23.1769, and that Ephraim witnessed the deed, which he, Ephraim, sold in 11.19.1772. A Benjamin sold land, 1788, on Horse Creek; and Edmond witnessed a deed of a Gilchrist man. At the same time, I noticed there was an Abraham Riley living in Edgefield, and I want you to hold that name in your mind.

Index of Newberry deeds (1785-1840), in loose-leaf binder form, located 10/20/1827, Gillis, along with about ten others, selling land to the Commissioner of the Poor (for the building of a poorhouse, we might imagine; but where this was, I couldn't tell. A plat search might reveal it); and Martha et.al., 1834, to Mary Boyd. We know who Gillis is, but not Martha...unless it was Martha Emma Wright. How she could be selling property in that period of our history, not being a widow, is a puzzlement. Married women could not own property in SC until 1870 or thereabouts, except in the rare cases of their having had a marriage settlement made for them prior to marriage, and even then, they didn't actually own it; and they had guardians other than their husbands regulating the estate. This was done chiefly in cases where large plantations were at risk. But perhaps Gillis had already left for the new lands? and left Martha with a power of attorney? The index says 'et.al.' meaning others..perhaps she and her children, or sisters, are cleaning up' after the father's estate..though it's been ten years. Those two notations are the only ones for Franklins in the index covering that period of time.

Probated estates [from ca. 1782-1880] index - Newberry County.

Vol II p.620: John Tinsely died 1812, the sale was 12.12.1812, and John was there with Seth Hatcher and Mrs. Franklin.

Vol II p.522: Cary Reagan died 1812, the sale was 4.17.1812, and Charles bought.

Vol II p.650: Elijah Anderson died 1816 and at the sale was John.

Vol II p.701: Frederick Boozer died 1816. At the sale 7.22.1816 was Reason.

1816 Archibald Boyd died (remember Martha selling land to Mary Boyd) and at the sale was John along with a multitude of Scotch-Irish Presbyterians.

There is no estate probated for an early Franklin, but, and this is my nugget..Seth Hatcher died 1813 (Vol I pg 206) leaving wife Linley, son Daniel, daughter Nancy, who m. John Marshall; dau. Linley, unnamed dau. the wife of Joh West, and the unnamed daughter the wife of John Franklin. This may not be "Susannah", of course; it could be Linley, since the records aren't clear to which daughter is married to whom. And I have something further that makes me say so. Anyway, John signed for his portion with an "X". He would be 22 years old. Father Charles, sons Joh, Gillis and Reason. Odd name, the last one, but the Davis Family in Newberry used it as a given name from very early. Gillis, too, is an odd name and I would love to know how it came about. One wants to say it was the name of Charles' father-in-law.

1850 Census of Newberry:

#953 is a widow, Lavinda b. ca 1771--dies, we think, because she isn't in the 1860 census . With her: L.F. 1811- [f]; C.R. 1829 [m] stone cutter; Martha E. 1834; George W. 1840; N.H. [f] 1846-1869 (N.H. is buried at Rosemont, the w/o ...Williams and the d/o L.L. Franklin. Someone said that they thought her name was Nancy Haseltine...must be from the 1860 census. Who L.L. is, we can only guess...Lavinda? We don't know who Lavinda's husband is or was (Reason? Thus C.R. is Charles Reason? or is she the widow of Charles A. himself?)

#995 J.M. 1816 - m. H.L. 1830 with dau. L.A. 1847. Don't know about you, but I want J.M. to be a son of Lavinda's fitting between L.F. and C.R. and for his daughter to be "Lavinda Adeline" for romatical reasons.

#996 William Riley 1830-11/1862 CSA (remember thee Riley name in Edgefield?); he married a cousin of mine, Nancy Jane Sloan 1830 - 7.24.1882, d/o Sam'l & Agens, who is buried at Beth Eden Lutheran. At this point, they have no children.

#495 is widow Nancy, 1809- with Eli 1837; Sarah 1839; John 1843; Mary 1849 and sis-in-law, Mary 1817. In interpret this as being the household of a son of Lavinda's, the eldest, and that his name is probably John. I think we've got to push Charles Alexander's birthdate back, in order to make the family of Lavinda his son's..or Lavinda is Charles's wife and there were, as you can see, more children than the three boys. Your John, being born 1791 could easily be Lavinda's eldest..but who, then, is poor Nancy the widow of? Could she be Reason's?

#966 William 1802 m. Nancy 1809 - with Charles 1835; Angeline 1836. The estate of this Nancy happens to have been probated 1/1862 with her son, Charles E., adm. I opened the packet, and learned to my sorrow that it was an unhappy family. Nancy died 12/23/1861, leaving only the two children. Angelina was now the wife of Wes. Swidler, though in the 1850 census she is called a "Griffit". She's only 14, then, so you wouldn't think she would be married. I thought she might be an illegitimate child, but she is called her mother's daughter in the probate records. Of course, she could be illegitimate from that side, too. Anyway, William is said plainly by his son to have deserted the family. He was last heard of living in (what I can make out) Panlilie (Panola?) County Mississippi, whence he had come 6 years age (1856) and never returned. The nature of the estate was small except for 12 slaves, whose ownership had apparently been settled in the courts of equity 7.15.1833 in a case of WM. Franklin & wife vs. Jacob Schumpert, in favor of the family. In the 1860 census, Charles E. is called a schoolteacher. Where Nancy might be buried, I cannot tell. Other probates are too late to help us sort out the family: the next one is 1880, Eliza, Pratt S. Suber, Adm.

Then 1930, Eli S., John T. & W.B., ex. The 1850 has a couple of others for us.

#18 Archie 1822 - Carpenter. I believe this to be Archibald who married another cousin of mine, Elizabeth ca. 1825 - 2.22.1860 d/o Robert & Elizabeth Spence Caldwell. There were two children of this union, Pinckney 1845 and Elizabeth 1848 who m. Douglas Beasley. Archie, if he is the one, is not living with his wife and children; they are living with their grandparents. I suppose all families had troubles, then, just as now; and divorce was not an easy thing. One last one..

#967 John 1828 - a farmer, brother/o Sarah, the w/o Ed. Kelly, with whom he is living.

1870 Census [..terrible decade, after the war. Everyone ruined. The nicest families shattered. Ladies taking in laundry; gentlemen running away; children in the fields.

#1251 Eli 1838 - stone cutter; m. Eliza Ann 1841; Eleanora 1858; Georgianna 1860; Kitty 1866; Reuben 1869. Since Eli is, in 1850, listed with Nancy, I think we could safely call him a son; and since he is a stone cutter in 1870, like Lavinda's son C.R. in 1850, then I think he's probably a grandson of Lavinda. Next door...

#1252 is the widow of William Riley, Nancy Jane, with Sarah A. 1850; John W. 1853 d 1917 (buried Rosemont); Elijah 6.19.1855 - 12.15.1930 (buried Kings Creek ARP. Eli' would be a shortened form of "Elijah", ?); David B. 1857; Samuel 1859. further on, is #3327 G.W., whom we have met in 1850 as the son of Lavinda, 1840 - he is a stone-cutter, and m. Susan M. 1845. They have Charles R.H. 1867; and Anna L. 1868. I choose to think Anna's name is "Anna Lavinda", since she's a grandchild of Lavinda's. There are some assorted individuals that can't be placed easily...

#3476 Adeline 1847 - I'm going to guess that these four are Nancy's...

#495 - 1850, with Polly (a pet name for Mary) lying a little about her age..making herself older..and Mary doing the same..only the opposite.

#3120 is headed by an almost illegible name that has been translated as "Lunly". I think Linly 1801, but I could be very wrong..or John married both the daughters of Seth Hatcher..not unheard of..- when did Susanna die? With Lunly is Martha 1832 - a seamstress; George 1855; E. McCollough 1858. At Anderson Kinard's home is John B. 1854 - a farm laborer.

A few other items: The Spartan, issue 9.21.1854, says that a James was killed near the Newberry courthouse in "a drunk shooting match frolic". At Rosemont is buried David I. 11.09.1867 - 3.17.1937 married Bessie; at Kings Creek, David Riley 1889-1952 s/o Elijah & Mary Ann (census calls her Eliza Ann, ..Mary Ann Elizabeth, Eliza Mary Ann, Mary Eliza Ann, etc.)

That completes my Franklin search for you, sir, and I'm sorry to be so disappointing. You can see that we are very hobbled by not having marriage and death and birth records. The estate of Alexander Wright -3.1325: wife Jenny, with my grandfather, Joseph Flemming, Administrator. (Mr. Wright was a newcomer, like Joseph Flemming. Perhaps they came on the same boat. They were probably both from Antrim Co., Ire). Children: Mary w/o Thomas Boyd (remember he buying land from Martha?); Anna, w/o James Henry; Jane; Nancy; Elizabeth. The returns only mention that Martha Emma, w/o Gillis and James sold their share by 1824, so they must have been seven children all total.
