A note from Dave Roper, 1001 Auburn Drive SW, Blacksburg, Virginia 24060-8123 (World Wide Web <http://www.bev.net/users/homepages/roperid>). He would like to inform readers that he has entered records from FFRU into PAF Franklin file. Much of it is available for downloading on genealogy Internet web page (<http://www.roperid.com>).

If any Franklin researchers would like for him to search his PAF file for their families just send a request by e-mail or s-mail with as many details about your family as possible. He would also like to receive GED files of Franklin families to include in his Franklin file.

Please keep in mind that Franklin Family Researchers United's information has been published from information submitted by other researchers (both members and non-members) and has not been researched and verified by the staff at FFRU. We highly recommend that all sources be reviewed and documented to your satisfaction. Thanks, Dave, for your generous offer...that's what FFRU is all about!

We at FFRU hope that you will excuse the tardiness in which this issue reaches you. With job changes, family deaths and other life crises, time scheduling has not come easy of late. The June issue is already late but we will take the necessary time to publish a quality issue. The loss of my mother in April, just at the time this issue should have hit the mail, has drained my energies and dealing with the death in itself has been an almost insurmountable task.

We are seriously considering 1997 as the final year of publication for FFRU. If any of the members would like to pick up the membership list and any materials suitable for publication we will be happy to assist as much as possible.

Please let us hear from you if the continuation of FFRU would be of interest to you. The publication is truly a wonderful research tool and we would love to see it continue.

What's in Your Name

Submitted by Dorothy Knight, 1604 Bowie St., Amarillo, TX sends the following information.

Franklin is a name which can be found in any biographical dictionary or Who's Who in America. This prominent name undoubtedly achieved its original fame in the country with the statesman, scientist and philosopher, Benjamin Franklin.

Several Franklins were early arrivals in America. Seventeen year old Jonathan Franklin was taken to Barbados from England in 1635. Nicholas Franklin was registered in the Parish of St. Michaels at Barbados in 1679. Peter Franklyn arrived at the port of Bristol from England in 1775.

Although principally of English origin, the Franklin name can also be traced as Germanic. This occupational surname is derived from the Middle English "Frankleyn" which means a freeholder who held substantial land for which he paid only a small rent and was not duty bound to render service to the lord.

Actually the name of Free-man, meaning "the free", preceded Franklin which was the French form of the same word. During the 13th and 14th centuries, personal freedom was much desired and the Franklin families progressed upward socially. The "freeman" in Norman England was one who cultivated his land with the right to sell it if he wished, owing the lord or the manor no more than the duty of attending his court and occasionally paying in nominal fee.

Some early records of the name in English history include Ralph Frankelein, 1195 in Yorkshire; Luke Le Frankeleyn, 1234 in Cambridgeshire; and Roger le Franklyn, 1274 in Devonshire.

The Franklin coat of arms portrays much symbolism. The shield is silver with two red lions' heads on each side of a blue bend upon which is embellished two gold martlets and one gold dolphin.

Ancestors and Descendants of the Franklin, Barnes, Ormsby, Horton, Whitman, Kimble, Darting and Mixon Lines of my Family

I am submitting this somewhat lengthy compilation in the hope that I will lend some clarity and substantiation to the lines from the information I have either gathered from published sources and from the considerable amount of information from my paternal grandparents. FFRU Volume 4, pages 27-31 (from which I have quoted directly) contains much I agree with and in other areas there are some discrepancies. I would be most pleased to communicate with anyone who can correct or authenticate the following. With much thanks, Diana Georgina (Franklin) Turner, 25615 Fernhill Drive, Los Altos Hills, California 94024-6335 (415) 941-1119

We begin with James Franklin (born 1650, probably in England). The NEHGR Vol 105 contains the following information, originally copied from Short History of West Ferries of Jamestown by Susan Braley Franklin.

James had been a soldier in King Phillips War. He served under Captain Daniel Henschman on 24 Aug 1676, in Captain Thomas Brattle's Company. On 9 Dec 1675 James was one of Captain Samuel Moseley's volunteer troops and was present at the Great Swamp Fight later that month. On 24 Aug 1676 his pay was assigned at Braintree, Massachusetts. This would indicate he was probably a resident of that town. He was evidently a young man at the time of the war. James was living in Rhode Island in Oct 1603 when he bought land in Dartmouth. In 1706 he was in Swansea, Massachusetts. He was styled a "cordwainer" in 1710 and was of Rehoboth, but by 1716 he had returned to Swansea. It seems probable the James Franklin was a brother of John Franklin of Swansea, cordwainer, who, with his wife sold land there in 1717 and James Franklin was a witness to the deed.

1. James Franklin was born about 1650. Before 1681-82 he married Unice (Unice Barnes daughter of Samuel Barnes of Barrington)³

Their children:

- A John Franklin married Ruth Wilson 6 May 1703. Later married Hannah _____

James Franklin (born 8 Jul 1682 Dartmouth, Massachusetts; died 21 Oct 1765 or 66 in Rhode Island and married 2 May to 1705 Martha Ormsby (born 7 May 1680) daughter of John Ormsby (born 1641; died 10 Mar 1717 from Rehoboth, Massachusetts vital records) and Grace Martin 1 Jan 1664 (Baptized 21 Sep 1640 in England; died 4 Jul 1710 Massachusetts).

John Ormsby's father was Richard Ormsby (born 1608, probably in Lincolnshire, England; died 30 Jun 1664 Rehoboth, Massachusetts. was (?Sara Fitch or Sarah Upham). They were living in Saco, Maine in 1641, later moved to Haverhill, Massachusetts.⁴ John Ormsby was a member of Phillip's Expedition against Quebec in 1690. (born 2 Nov 1609 at Ottery St Mary, Devon, England; died 2 Mar 1694 Rehoboth, Massachusetts His will entered 9 May 1695 (Paul Gen.). Richard married 9 Jun 1631 at Ottery, Elizabeth Salter Ellis (born 20 Oct 1616 at Ottery, Devonshire, England) Elizabeth was daughter of Robert Saiter Ellis (born - 1578 at Ottery) who married 26 Nov 1604. Elizabeth Frawkener (or Ffrawkener) daughter of Michael Frawkener (born - 1557).

Mary E. Darling was daughter of Timothy Darling (born 16 Oct 1804) and Diantha M. (? Gunn or Groves) (born 13 Aug 1811) from handwritten record in my possession. One of their sons, Marcellus Darling (born 9 Mar 1844), wrote an extensive journal of his time in the Union army. This was eventually published in a serialized form in the St. Louis Journal in the early 1900's. Marcellus married Clara Woolsen and they had Jay Norwood "Ding" Darling (born 1 Oct 1876), newspaperman, who won a Pulitzer Cartoon Award 1923 and 1942, he was an ardent conservationist and was elected president of the National Wildlife Federation.

Mary Martha Stowe's line can be traced back through published lineage via Stowe - Baldwin - Bruen - Booth- etc - through King Henry II's line to
