To ask for a receipt—it looked too much like doubting the other man's honesty.

All the trouble, all the worry, all the unpleasantness would have been avoided had the payment been made by check instead of cash.

Why not place your money in this bank and pay all your bills by check? It is the one safe way.

Blow His Brains Out.

L. L. Adams, while under the influence of whiskey and in a despondent mood, placed a pistol against his head and blew his brains out about dark last Saturday evening.

The veterinarian man had threatened to kill himself and when only a short while before the tragedy occurred, he repeated the threat, no alarm was felt about the matter.

Mr. Adams was about fifty-five years old and leaves two children, all of whom are grown. A son living at Leontine took the remains to Geneva, for burial.

The following verdict was rendered by the coroner's jury: We, the jury, examined by W. U. Whit, jurate of the peace in and for the said county, sitting as coroner, to wit: in a jury concerning the death of a certain person, upon the view of his body, did examine at Floriole, Ala., and being duly sworn to inquire concerning his death, who he was, when and where and by what means he came to his death, render this our verdict: We find the cause of the deceased to be falling on the pavement in the town of Floriole, in said county of Orangeburg, on Nov. 25, 1910, in our opinion as the result of a gunshot wound at the hand of himself. JURY: J. W. Burk, H. B. Burgess, T. A. Hall, B. H. Blake, J. J. Johnson, G. A. Melville.

Sunday School Workers

I am in receipt of a letter from General Secretary D. W. Sims, requesting me to call attention to the teachers' meeting to be held in the First Baptist church in Montgomery on December 10th and 11th, and to urge a full attendance, especially of the Sunday school superintendents and teachers. It is confidently expected that the county Sunday school officers will attend on December 10th, the day on which the county officers' conference will be held.

All who go will be richly repaid for the trip.

Miss W. C. Warren, County Teacher Training Superintendent.

The program of above conference will appear in our publication.

Mrs. Edward H. Williams entertained very informally Wednesday evening at her home, Mrs. John J. MacLean of Florida and Mrs. Marvin Boyd of Georgia. The guests were confined to the members of the history club, of which Mrs. MacLean is a former member.

Each guest was on a post card and her favorite recipe for some delightful dish, these cards were inserted in a post card album and presented to Mrs. Boyd.

Mrs. Williams served a delicious and elegant dinner, followed by fruit punch and ribbon cake.

Walter F. Wood and his daughter from Andaleia, took a lunch on the great ship, being pulled off at Leontine last Saturday night and enjoyed the performance. One of the parties presented was created while the other gave the ball and left for parts unknown.

Miss Maggie Egan and J. F. McOubre of near Laurel Hill, were married by Brooks Miller, J. P., just across the state line, last Sunday afternoon. The groom was about thirty-five and the bride thirteen years old.

A collision occurred on Fifth street last Monday morning. Postmaster Hilly's buggy was run into by one of the large lumber belonging to the "Shoppers' store" and a hind wheel of the vehicle badly wrecked.

The Standard Oil company is taking a new and larger tank built just below the Central depot, the capacity of which will be 20,000 gallons. J. W. Mayne of Gadsden, Ala., is in charge of the work.

The young man who carried a bicycle from J. J. Johnson last Monday for a few hours' spin, and who failed to return the wheel, has been located at some point in Florida.

The members of the Florida gun club are to be congratulated upon the successful and highly enjoyable manner in which the supper program was carried out.

W. A. Buzan and his associates will make a personal appeal to the president to give the letter to all other churches to be held in price here.

A report who talked up on being was placed in the city today by Marshall Hill Sunday afternoon.

Among the guests at the post club supper last Friday evening were several out-of-town visitors.

Miss Thelma Howard of Andaleia, spent Sunday with her son at Florida.

Don't forget the services announced for next Sunday at the Baptist church.

J. T. Ford was mentioned in his name by someone he heard say this week.

The Sponsoring System

A happy, happy group of children, boys and girls, gathered about the tables of the Sponsoring System, when their parents, mothers and fathers, were present.

The children received of $2.00 each, and were given the privilege of purchasing with the money, any of the goods which were on display. This was a very popular feature and was very well received.

Following, Miss Miss Julia Robinson, delighted the children with her special selections. She has a variety of goods to sell at home on the table, and she is very popular with the children.

The children's arrival at the office of the Sponsoring System, created a sensation by entering through the ladies' hands, many new boxes and gifts.

They assembled and she has begun with their selections. Miss Julia Robinson, very smiling, she welcomed the children and related her experience in a few well chosen words.

The children's secretary, P. A. Knight, led the girls and boys to the tables where they were given the different reports were read by the officers and were very interesting.

This is a Bargain Event that Will Surpass Anything Ever Before Attempted

In Covington County and Florida. Right now, at the right time, just the season you will be compelled to buy winter goods, and outfit yourself and family from head to foot, we offer goods never before shown over the retail counter at prices that will almost make the dead and make all the living sit up and take notice. Magnificent bargains, thousands of surprises. Read on, then wait for the 20th century's most remarkable Sale. Act at once when the bargain floodgates open Dec. 3rd, at 9 a. m. Everything goes for whatever it will bring. Remember, this is not an ordinary bargain sale. It is not a take of any sort. It is just a case of entirely (thousands of dollars) too much goods and not enough money. It is just a real old fashioned honest, straightforward "Must Make Money" Sale. Look where you will, read what you please. Your eyes, your mind and your feet should turn towards this store, for as apparent will be the great money-saving benefits of this extraordinary event that it will pay you to investigate our statement which will prove to you that this is no false bill, but actual facts. Remember the date.
