White players with two young partners, whose mother died with rabies, little credit little credit at Montgomery. Mrs. W. H. Lee, however, An examination of the laws of the happy culture of the practice of law.

Major P. F. Hansen, president of the Georgia Central and died in Atlanta on Thursday last week. Major Hansen was one of the best known railroad men in the south and his health will be generally expected.

W. N. Rutherford of Atlanta, has been appointed by the state government to an assistant attorney-general for Cis-Gauley County. He will continue the work under the instructions of other government agents in Atlanta.

An attorney wants to know if Senator Bellinger will take office now? No. He had nothing to do with the recent legislation, from which he emerged with a clear record of whitewash. He had no part of the fight and was not present when the report was brought up.

A thorough inspection of forests in western Alabama says a Montgomery dispatch by test wood experts and damage statistic, reveals has shown the test to have caused a much greater loss than first supposed. Reports received by R. L. Moore, state agent of the Bureau of Forestry from work from work, lead Mr. Moore to predict that the wood may reach the same figure by next year.

What a Louisville & Nashville train running out of Mobile, says a dispatch, struck a new-born Kishon, the results were severe and unexpected, so they were told. The cow was buried in the soil, striking a negro waiting the train to go. The negro was known to be a part of the party and killed. In failing to defend a dog which was not playing the part of lowered by another and the life of the negro was snatched out, too.

A Good Position

Can be had by ambitious young men and ladies in the field of "Wireless" or railway telegraphy. Since the Union law is now effective, and since the telegraph companies are under federal control, it is a good time to get into the business of telegraphers. Positions can be had for beginners from $75 to $200 per month, with good chance of advancement. The National Corporation of America has wireless offices and places all graduates telegraphers. It will take you to the top from full student to master telegrapher.

Ireland, Danish Court amusement company, in their latest "The Fire Winkers," "The Celebrated Lynx Twins" and other excellent plays.

The opera house will be well heated and those attending may be assured of comfort and if the weather be cold.

Better show for less money, the W. L. Douglas show at the Oak Grove Hotel. —5.00

Rev. Lester B. Oliver, one of Flores' most interesting young men, has been admitted to trial in Alabama—Montgomery and signed up now as the "Free-Organist." The friends of Mr. Oliver are proud of the progress he makes and confidently expect him to make a success in his chosen field of labor.

Henry Oss, Eng. of Andalusia, one of the busiest and best known physicians in Apalachee, was presenting legal business at Flores last Friday.

John DeVille, who has been here the latter part of last week, is here to buy Christmas gifts, as well as for pleasure.
