CITIZENS OF HENRY COUNTY WHO TOOK THE OATH OF ALLEGIANCE

The General Assembly of Virginia, when The United States was in its infancy, passed an Act to oblige all free male inhabitants of the State above sixteen years of age to give assurance of allegiance to the same. The following is a list of those who took the oath from the original record among the files in the Clerk's Office.

At the time some were away fighting Indians, others hunting, and there were a few who refused to take the oath.
